

Back to the Bible Workshop Overview

If you can do these three things, you can teach a study:

1. Read a Scripture (that you have underlined in your Bible)
2. Ask a question (that you have written in the margin)
3. Turn to the next page (whose number you have written in the margin)

Church of Christ says: Speak where the Bible speaks. Be silent where the Bible is silent.
Use just the Bible and a pad of paper. No tracts or brochures etc.
Just the Student and Teacher, and a Silent Partner to take notes for the student to keep.

The verses flow in orderly fashion and discuss:

Authority of the Scriptures
Difference between Old and New Testaments
Necessity of Christ's blood
Gospel Plan of Salvation
In 1 ½ hours, baptism is discussed in natural sequence and demands a decision RIGHT THEN
Organization of the church
How to worship
What the Bible teaches about Christian living

Teaching ability is of little importance.

Scriptures teach and convict honest hearts.

Simple, Short, Systematic, Scriptural.

One congregation wrote, "This method is simple and exciting because we are able to see results by almost everyone who tries to teach."

At your workshop we will:

Teach your Sunday morning class: "Should We Teach?"

Preach your Sunday morning sermon: "The Challenge of Evangelism"

During the 2 ½ to 3 hour afternoon workshop we will:

Show you how to mark your Bibles, teach the study and ask for obedience.

Conduct a demonstration study.

Show you how to ask people to study.

Costs to your congregation:

We neither expect nor will accept a stipend or honorarium.

We hope you can reimburse our cost of $6 for each King James Bible.

We hope you can reimburse our cost for 2 airline tickets if you are not within driving range.

For more information including a copy of our teaching material, please look at the other files on this CD.
